

JUN 8 1961

Approved For Release 2000/06/30 : CIA-RDP75-00001

STATINTL

Shorter Powers Jail Term Seen

BRUNSWICK, Ga., June 7

(AP)—A shorter term is being negotiated with the Russians for imprisoned U-2 pilot Francis G. Powers, the physician who cares for Powers' wife said today.

Dr. James E. Baugh of Milledgeville, Ga., made the disclosure during questioning as he addressed the Brunswick, Rotary Club. He would give no details.

Baugh, who accompanied Mrs. Barbara Powers to the trial of her husband in Moscow last August, was asked whether the pilot's 10-year sentence might be cut. He replied:

"Yes, I have definite information. It is in the process of negotiation. I'd rather not say anything on it."

CPYRGHT